CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE REVIEW GUIDE

Extension Programs

National Institute of Food and Agriculture
Guide for Civil Rights Review of
Extension Programs

For NIFA-USDA Administrative Use Only

Preamble

General

The National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) and its land-grant partners recognize the importance of diversity and inclusion in the development and implementation of Extension programs. These Extension programs must be handled in a manner that treats every customer and employee with fairness, equality, and respect. This applies to all aspects of the Extension programs including identifying needs, setting priorities, allocating resources, selecting and assigning staff, conducting programs, and getting feedback.

In accordance with United States Department of Agriculture civil rights regulations 7 CFR 15 any recipient of federal financial assistance, regardless of the amount, is subject to civil rights reviews. Further, the primary recipient of federal financial assistance is responsible for civil rights administration where the primary recipient has extended the financial assistance to another recipient.

Civil Rights program reviews, conducted by NIFA, are intended as part of a proactive effort to determine how well Extension programs and operations are being done on an equal opportunity basis by recipients in compliance with Federal Title 28, Part 25.11 to 25.12 of the Code of Federal Regulations (465 342.2).

NIFA Civil Rights compliance reviews are conducted consistent with the following major statutes and Departmental Regulations:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 USC 2000d.
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, 19 USC 794.
- Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 USC 12101 et. seq.
